July 2021 News and Notes

Worship Resumes with (Almost) Full Liturgy and Hymns on July 11

We are grateful and excited to once again gather for full worship each Sunday beginning July 11. Hymns will be sung, the Creed confessed, special music will return, and masks will be optional for those who are vaccinated. We will still refrain from physically sharing the Peace and passing the offering plate, and Communion will be received continuously through the summer.

Broadcasts will continue as usual but will again be recorded live at the Sunday service. (See the separate article on how best to follow along from home.) Please do not attend live worship if you are not feeling well or if you have concerns for your health. If you cannot attend, you may call the office to request home Communion.

Watching Trinity's Broadcast as We Return to Live Worship

We are excited and grateful that we will be able to return to full live worship beginning July 11. As broadcasts and social media content continue to be produced, there will be some changes for those who worship remotely.

Viewers will now be able to see the actual Sunday service just as it is experienced live.

Viewers will still be able to follow along with our Sunday Worship Bulletin which is included in each social media post.

Since we will now be recording only the live service, the release to social media will be later in the day each Sunday. Televised broadcasts will not be affected.

Captions of various parts of the liturgy and hymn texts will no longer be included in the video.

If you like to sing from home, we will help you get a hymnal.

If you live locally, call the church office at (610) 374-4861 or email rgambone@trinityreading.org to request a hymnal.

If you are out of the area, you can order direct through this link and have a hymnal delivered to your home (delivery costs and sales tax will be added).

Full cost is $24.50 if ordered through Trinity and delivered locally.

Please make your check out to Trinity and specify “hymnal” in the memo line. If you cannot afford the full cost, pay what you can and a hymnal will be provided.

Orders received by July 11 will be delivered to your home in August.

July Vestry Meeting

(The following is a brief summary; not official minutes.)

Trinity's Vestry met by Zoom on June 14 for an organizational meeting and welcomed new Vestry member, Martha Good. The members reviewed the minutes of the May Vestry meeting, the June 6 Congregation Meeting, and the return to live worship. Officers were elected: Jen Mazur, president; Amy Litvinov, vice president; Hannah Long, secretary; Steve Welz, executive member at large; and Jeff Wasmuth, treasurer. Committee assignments were made. Reports were received from the Educational Assistance Committee, and the Energy Auditors (Sitelogiq), as well as from staff.

Discussion was held on maintaining a single service indefinitely in order to unify the congregation as we return from the pandemic and as a means of maintaining a more vital worship experience; it was moved, seconded and passed that we continue a single Sunday worship service at 10:00 AM through January 9, 2022, at which time, we will reevaluate the situation with member input. The Program Staff will propose a schedule for other Sunday morning activities (choirs, learning, fellowship, etc.) in consultation with our various constituencies. The Treasurer's Report indicates that income and expenses are currently stable and within budget.

Congratulations Graduates!

Courtyard Café Returns

Wednesday, July 21, 2021

Our summer tradition returns in a different format due to pandemic safety precautions. Instead of grilling burgers and hot dogs, we will be assembling a pre-packed sandwich lunch to serve outside.

The sandwiches will be purchased ahead of time. We welcome donations of apples, grapes, bottled water and cookies. Financial gifts are also appreciated; please mark them for Courtyard Café. In addition, we need volunteers to prepack lunches and to hand out the lunches.

See the sign-up sheet on the Welcome Table in the narthex for donating food and water and for helping set up and clean up. You may also call or email Rachel Gambone in the church office at (610) 374-4861. If you have any questions, please call Dee Horst at (610) 374-4861 ext. 29.

Family Promise Hosting in July

Trinity and Atonement Churches are the hosts for the two weeks July 12-25, 2021. We purchase groceries, diapers, and gift cards as well as provide a prepared meal on Mondays and Thursdays. (Families now stay in transition homes rather than moving weekly from church to church.) Sign up at:

<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/20f0e49a9a822a4f94-family21>

The families move on to permanent housing as quickly as possible. Two families we helped in April have graduated, and who knows who will move on or move in by our next host time! Please speak to Deaconess Deborah with any questions.
